Good News Chapel

Planning for the Will Graham Look Up Celebration on June 12-13th in Regina presented an opportunity to be a part of sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ to many different reserves.

The Billy Graham Evangelistic Association of Canada organized a Rising Up Tour in May with Fresh IE and other hip hop artists (including Biz Nico from Red Pheasant First Nation). Ryan Tuck (who works for the BGEAC) asked me if I would like to travel with him as a part of the tour.

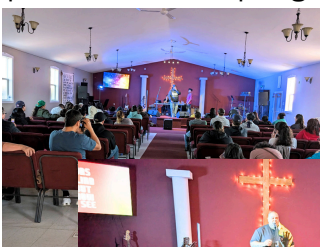

A week before the tour started, a last minute cancellation occurred on the Monday night which presented an opportunity to shift the location to Muskowekwan First Nation where we have a church plant. This date matched with Treaty Day on the reserve and we were able to get approval with chief and council which could have led to many people from the community attending.

On Sunday, the day before the event, we were told that someone on Muskowekwan passed away and as such all celebrations were cancelled. It was discouraging but all was not lost. On the Friday, one of the reserve vans brought fifteen people from Muskowekwan to Key Reserve to see the concert and everyone had a great time.

The tour was an excellent opportunity to connect with Indigenous pastors and see ministry on reserve in many different locations. On Carry the Kettle I was able to meet Rev Bernard Jack (Hoss) who just recently celebrated his 50th ministry anniversary.

On Ochapowace the Rising Up Tour performed at the elementary school in the afternoon as well as at the hockey arena in the evening. During the performance some of the kids recognized me. They used to attend our church in Regina. I reached out to their dad and we were able to connect and they all came to the concert that night. Since going back to the reserve, he has been sober for two months. While on Ochapowace we drove by the church on Kahkewistahaw. I've been in communication with one of the elders of the church and am hoping to connect the family with the leadership. I found out the pastor lives in Kipling and is a part of Ethnos Canada.

On Key First Nation I was able to connect with Pastor Jamie Desjarlais more about the AYC (Aboriginal Youth Community) Conferences that they have multiple times a year (I met Pastor Jamie at their AYC Leadership Camp in December). We're hoping to send volunteers in the future as many youth from Muskowekwan attend the conferences including going to Vancouver Island twice a year. In fact, we were able to arrange a 15 passenger van to come from Muskowekwan to Regina for the Look Up Celebration which will then drive up to Key after for a AYC event on the same weekend. It is exciting to have these new relationships and only God knows where these connections will lead!

EASTER VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

In April, 24 students from Regina Christian School led crafts, games, Bible stories, and songs, welcoming around 65 kids each day at the VBS over the Easter break. Gentle Road Church let us use their building again and also helped with picking up kids. It was an amazing week!

- While many people in our congregation give sacrificially, we do not bring in enough financial support to meet our needs and must fundraise for the remainder of our budget. Financial support from those outside the church makes a big difference in our ministry. We praise God for all the individuals and churches who donate to support our ministry in Regina and on Muskowekwan!
